Upper Alton, Ill. Jan. 27, 1906.

Dr. William J. Kerr,

Hogan, Utah.

Dear Sir;

Permit me to inquire if you will need a man in Modern Languages for the coming year. I inquire in behalf of a friend (A.B., Ph.D. Strasburg), who has had considerable experience in teaching Modern Languages. He is passing this year at the University of Madrid and has spent four years in Europe.

Yours respectfully,

Walter H. Bradley,
Pastor First Presbyterian Church.

Feb. 14, 1906.

Mr. Walter H. Bradley,
Upper Alton, Ill.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your inquiry of recent date, I am directed to inform you that there will probably not be an opening in this institution next year for a man in modern languages. Should a vacancy occur, I shall be glad to notify you.

Yours very truly,

Secretary to the President.
